TORONTO June 25, 2020—ATU Canada is calling out Transport Minister, Marc Garneau for failing to respond to the financial crisis faced by intercity transit companies. Canadian President John Di Nino is also calling out Greyhound Canada for an injustice to frontline workers - where they gave workers an ultimatum: either agree to a 15% wage reduction and give up their pension plan - or face a permanent shut down.

As members of the Amalgamated Transit Union we are part of a family of workers with a proud history and a rich tradition. And that history and tradition inspires us to pledge that we will work to promote the best interests of our ATU brothers and sisters as long as we are members. We are also part of a broader labor movement in the United States and Canada - a movement which has fought for a better life for workers since the 1800's, and which continues on today.
