Contemplative Retreat The Universal Christ: Another Name ...

Retreats are a way to take one's relationship with God and one's practice deeper. They offer time and space away from the busyness and demands of daily life, and allow the mind, body, and spirit to surrender to God's presence and action within. Retreats are a common practice in many spiritual traditions and are a valuable tool to aid one's interior transformation in Christ.

Workshop Centering Prayer is a form of Christian silent mediation where one lets go of thoughts during periods of prayer typically lasting 20 minutes. It is rooted in the self-emptying love that forms the heart of Jesus' teaching and life.

In addition, I also have introduced this method of prayer and way of life to small groups and individuals, all of whom were able to make this retreat in their daily lives (not going anywhere else, but dedicating at least 30 minutes a day to contemplative meditation, committing themselves to do this for a min. of 20 weeks).
