MyGURPS. Deadlands The Weird West. Return to Savage Worlds. It's not an understatement to say that "Western Horror" wouldn't exist as a major RPG genre if not for Deadlands. It manages to blend "kitchen-sink fun" with genuine gruesome horror, supporting anything from realistic grizzled gunslingers to over-the-top hex-casters.

While GURPS Deadlands: Weird West is set in 1877 Pinnacle Entertainment Group came out with Deadlands: Hell on Earth where the "Reckoners" manipulate the Confederate States of America and United States into a nuclear war. This allows the "Reckoners" to manifest directly on Earth where they are revealed to be the Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse.

The "Weird West" mark is used to distinguish the primary game setting from the various other settings: Deadlands: The Great Rail Wars — a tabletop wargame with miniature figures. Doomtown — a collectible card game. A sourcebook for the town described in the game was released under the title Doomtown or Bust!.

Deadlands Reloaded. Pinnacle's flagship product is Deadlands, a horrific journey into the "Weird West.". Mysterious beings called the Reckoners have given life to monsters and magic, causing history to divert from July 4th, 1863 forward. The South has won its independence, California has shattered into a labyrinth of flooded sea-canyons, and a mysterious super-fuel called "ghost rock" has spawned as much war and strife as it has "steampunk" devices.

I like GURPS. I like Deadlands (classic, reloaded sucks) What makes Deadlands great is the mechanics. Trying to port it into GURPS makes it lose everything that made it an award winning game. If anything, the world books should be going in the other direction, allowing more options with Classic Deadlands mechanics.
