The Three Worlds Of Man

The third is äkhirah, the world in which everything is known and understood, the world of the kingdom of God, the world of God's undiminishing benevolence. In äkhirah, men are given their rightful status and live a birthless, deathless life in eternity. These are the three worlds that appear in man.

If you are acquainted with the Bible you know that everywhere it views man as a three-fold being made up of body, soul and spirit. Because man is a three-fold entity, physical, the body, and intangible, the soul, and the spirit, having each its own peculiar and separate function, man is therefore a being designed to live in three worlds.
