Turbulent Souls Summary - eNotes.com

Turbulent Souls is divided into three parts. The first is told in third-person and describes the histories of Solomon and Florence and their immigrant parents. Dubner details what it was like for them growing up. Solomon's parents were Orthodox, and his father, Shepsel, sat shiva for him when he learned of his conversion.

Turbulent Souls by Stephen J. Dubner : All About Romance

A deeply affecting story of three people's intense religious journeys: from Judaism to Roman Catholicism on the part of the author's parents, and the reverse for Dubner himself. A writer and editor at the New York Times Magazine, Dubner traces the loneliness, loss, and estrangement that led his parents away from their second-generation inner-city
